

Build your own token-powered community.

Create, sell, and automate
no code, no limits, fully white-label.

Algorand

Too many tools, not enough traction.

Posting, selling, and rewarding fans means juggling multiple apps and spreadsheets.

Centralized platforms push their own brand—your community sees theirs, not yours.

Free followers rarely upgrade because perks feel scattered or short-lived.

Automations take coding or pricey subscriptions most creators can't justify.

“We spend more time stitching together apps than engaging fans.
Centralized platforms own the spotlight, and hard-won followers slip away before tasting premium perks.

One dashboard, endless loyalty tokens.

Mint a branded token for any product, service, or subscription in two clicks.

Automate delivery—tokens drop to customers by link or QR the moment they buy or join.

Run free and premium tiers side-by-side; tokens unlock extras that nudge fans to upgrade.

Cross-link perks with other apprentices to give each token more places to shine.

Instead of stitching apps, you open one dashboard. Click to mint a branded token, and it lands in your customer's phone automatically—ready to unlock perks today and premium upgrades tomorrow. Partner tokens? Just flip a switch.

Turn fans into regulars.

A single token reminds customers you're still here—and rewards every return.

One badge replaces paper punch cards and coupon emails—nothing gets lost.

Share perks with a nearby partner and reach a fresh crowd without extra ads.

Premium perks sit behind the same token, nudging free fans to upgrade when they're ready.

Handing out one digital token keeps your brand top of mind, brings customers back, and lets you team up with neighbours for extra buzz—no extra apps, no lost punch cards.

What's coming next

Week 1

Kick-off & token basics

You mint your first branded loyalty token and hand it to a customer.

Month 1

Automation goes live

Tokens drop automatically after each sale; no more manual links.

Month 3

Partner perks

Flip a switch to let a neighbouring brand honour your token —and vice-versa.

Month 6

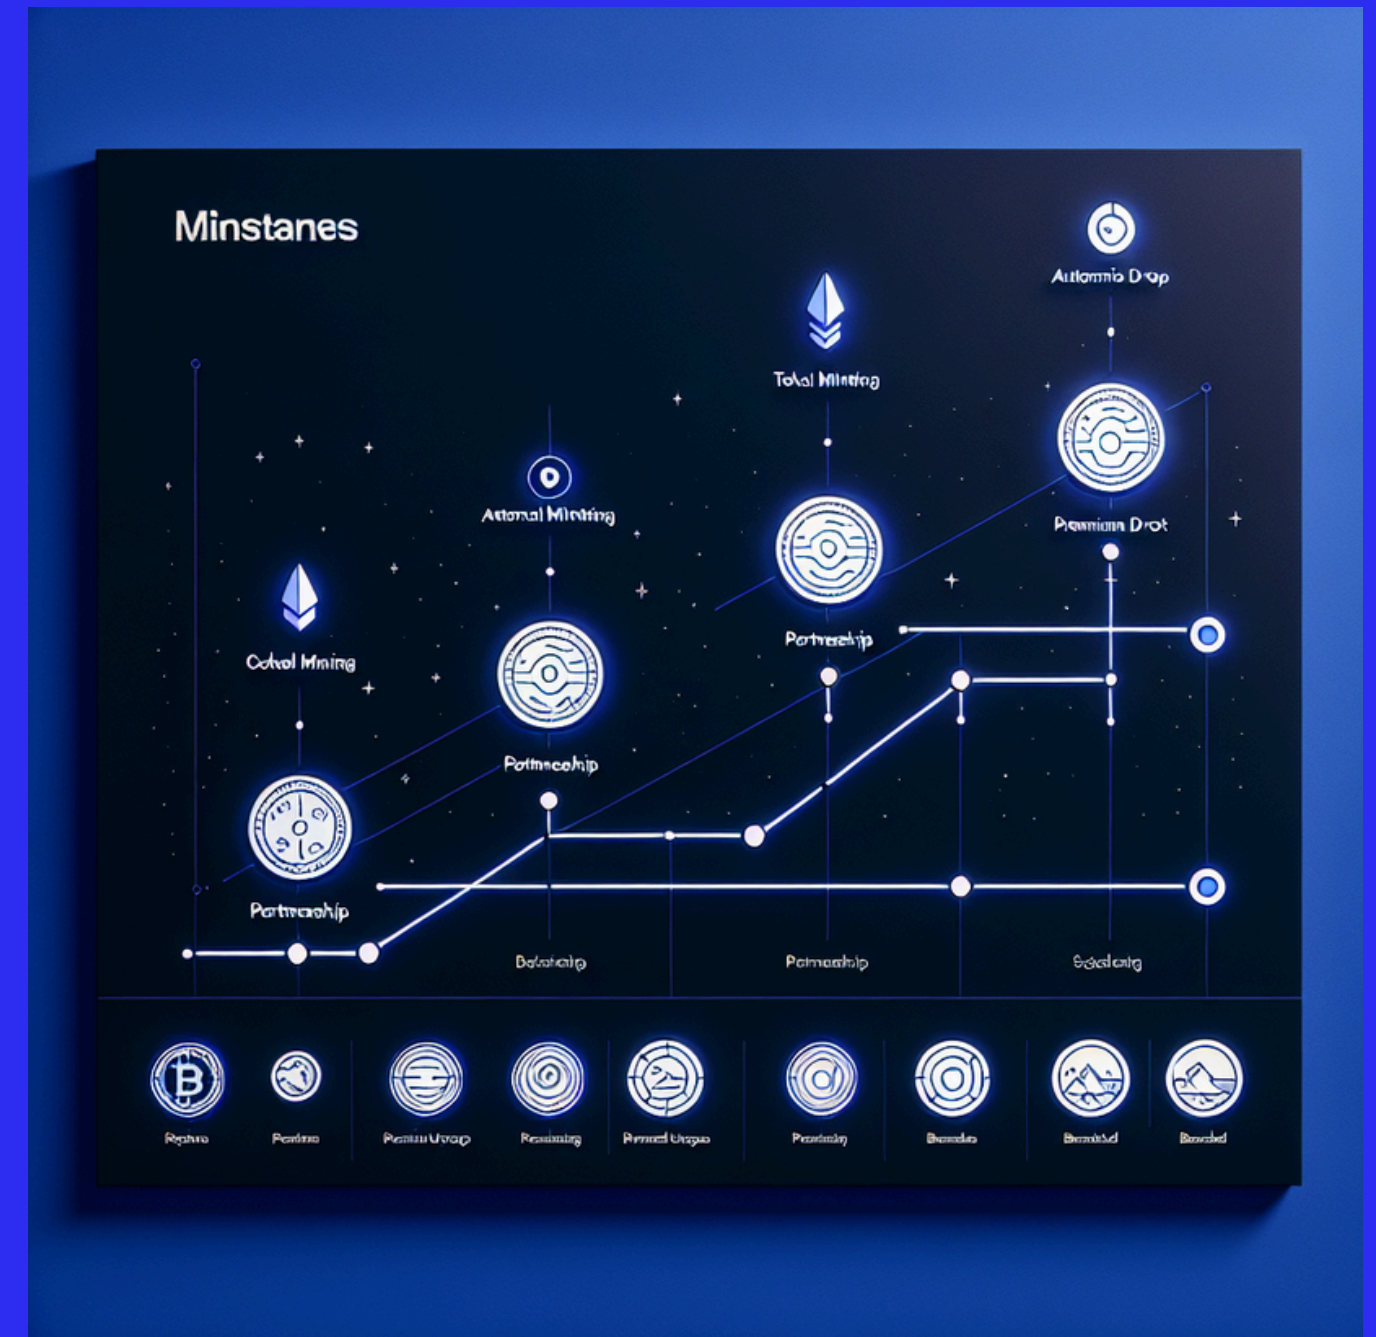

Premium tier

Lock exclusive content or VIP discounts behind the same token to boost paid upgrades.

Month 9

Own-brand portal

Your community logs in at your-name.com—100 % white-label, no mention of us.

In the first week you'll hand out real tokens. By summer you'll share perks with neighbours and upsell premium content. By fall, your community runs on your own branded portal—fully white-label.
